

USEFUL WEBSITES AND PAGES FOR CONTENT CURATION

HUMOUR

Off the mark: <https://www.offthemark.com/>

It has a huge bank of cartoons and for a small fee you can share on your Facebook page. Ideal for cartoons for holiday and seasons, jobs, teachers and other areas.

The Lingwist <https://thelingwist.net/> or check <https://www.facebook.com/thelingwist>

The Lingwist's motto is " Learn & have fun" . Head to their Facebook page for hilarious content to share with your students.

The Language Nerds www.thelanguagenerds.com or <https://www.instagram.com/the.language.nerds/>

They are passionate about topics in linguistics and language teaching. Check their website and also their instagram account for amusing posts.

PRACTICAL ADVICE

- Big Life Journal <https://www.facebook.com/biglifejournal/>

It gives parents resources to teach kids important life skills and help them develop the right mindset.

- Study in Europe <https://www.facebook.com/StudyInEurope.Welcome/>

Help students worldwide find higher education study, scholarship and research opportunities in Europe.

INSPIRATION

- Goodreads <https://www.goodreads.com/quotes>

It has a huge collection of quotes . You can search here and then create you own post with Canva like this post from my intagram account.

- Quotes from @ginaeltconsultant https://www.instagram.com/gina_elt_consultant/

Here you will find my own collection of educational quotes as well as quotes that foster empathy, kindness and inspire. Feel free to share!

- TedTalks they need no presentation <https://www.facebook.com/TED> or <http://www.ted.com/>

Easy to share from their Facebook page or website. I'd add a focus question, a short comment or your own opinion to encourage interaction.

- The Happy Broadcast <https://www.thehappybroadcast.com/> or <https://www.instagram.com/p/CXlkv-dFkWA/>

Fact-checked ANXIETY-FREE NEWS from around the world that is good for our mental health!